C. WHAT ARE THE INVESTMENT STRATEGIES?

Equity and equity related securities

The corpus of the Scheme will be invested in stocks constituting the benchmark of the Scheme and in exchange traded derivatives on the NASDAQ-100 Index®. The Scheme shall follow an passive investment strategy.

The performance of the Scheme may not commensurate with the performance of the respective benchmark of the Schemes on any given day or over any given period. The stocks comprising the NASDAQ-100 Index® is periodically reviewed by the Corporations. A particular stock may be dropped or new securities may be included as a constituent of the index. In such an event, the Scheme will endeavor to reallocate its portfolio but the available investment/ disinvestment opportunities may not permit precise mirroring of the index immediately. The portfolio shall be rebalanced within 7 calendar days to ensure adherence to the asset allocation norms of the Scheme. Similarly, in the event of a constituent stock being demerged / merged / delisted from the exchange, the Scheme will reallocate the portfolio and seek to minimize the variation from the index.

Fixed Income Securities:

The scheme may invest 0-5% of the Net Assets in reverse repo, tri-party repo, units of debt schemes/ETFs to meet the liquidity and redemption requirements.

Implementation of Policies

The Scheme, in general, will hold all of the securities that form part of the Underlying Index in the same proportion as the index. Expectation is that, over time, the tracking error of the Scheme relative to the performance of the Underlying Index will be relatively low.

The Investment Manager would monitor the tracking error of the Scheme on an ongoing basis and would seek to minimize tracking error to the maximum extent possible. There can be no assurance or guarantee that the Scheme will achieve any particular level of tracking error relative to performance of the Underlying Index.

Investment Process

The Scheme will track the Underlying Index and is a passively managed scheme. The investment Decisions will be determined as per the Underlying Index. In case of any change in the index due to corporate actions or change in the constituents of the Underlying Index (as communicated by the Index Service Provider), relevant investment decisions will be determined considering the composition of the Underlying Index.

The Investment decision of the Scheme will be carried out by the designated Fund Manager.

ICICI Prudential Nasdaq 100 Index Fund will follow a passive investment strategy, the endeavor will be to minimize portfolio turnover subject to the exigencies and needs of the Schemes. Generally, turnover will be confined to rebalancing of portfolio on account of new subscriptions, redemptions and change in the composition of NASDAQ-100 Index®.

PART III. OTHER DETAILS

A. COMPUTATION OF NAV

The NAV of the Units of the Scheme will be computed by dividing the net assets of the Scheme by the number of Units outstanding on the valuation date. The Fund shall value its investments according to the valuation norms, as specified in Schedule VIII of the Regulations, or such norms as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time and as stipulated in the valuation policy and procedures of the Fund, provided in Statement of Additional Information (SAI).

The NAV of the Scheme shall be rounded off upto four decimals

NAV of units under the Scheme shall be calculated as shown below:

NAV (Rs.) =

Market or Fair Value of Scheme's investments + Current Assets
- Current Liabilities and Provision

No. of Units outstanding under Schemes

The NAV will be calculated as of the close of every Business Day of the respective Scheme. The valuation of the Scheme's assets and calculation of the Scheme's NAV shall be subject to audit on an annual basis and such regulations as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time.

Illustration of computation of NAV:

If the net assets of the Scheme are Rs.10,45,34,345.34 and units outstanding are 10,000,000, then the NAV per unit will be computed as follows:

$10,45,34,345.34 / 10,000,000 = \text{Rs. } 10.4534 \text{ p.u. (rounded off to four decimals)}$

The Fund shall ensure that the repurchase price of an open ended scheme is not lower than 95 per cent of the Net Asset Value.

For further details, such as policies with respect to computation of NAV, rounding off, valuation of investment in foreign securities, procedure in case of delay in disclosure of NAV etc., please refer to SAI.

SECTION II

I. Introduction

A. Definitions

Definition for the words and expressions used in the SID are available at the following link : SID related information \(icicpruamc.com\)

The words and expressions shall have the meaning as specified at the above link, unless the context otherwise requires.

B. Risk Factors

I. Standard Risk Factors: Please refer to SAI.

II. Scheme specific risk factors

Market Risk:

The Scheme's NAV will react to the stock market movements. The Investor could lose money over short periods due to fluctuation in the Scheme's NAV in response to factors such as economic and political developments, changes in interest rates and perceived trends in stock prices market movements, and over longer periods during market downturns.

Settlement Risk: In certain cases, settlement periods may be extended significantly by unforeseen circumstances. The inability of the Scheme to make intended securities purchases due to settlement problems could cause the Scheme to miss certain investment opportunities as in certain cases, settlement periods may be extended significantly by unforeseen circumstances. Similarly, the inability to sell securities held in the Scheme portfolio may result, at times, in potential losses to the Scheme, and there can be a subsequent decline in the value of the securities held in the Scheme portfolio.

Redemption Risk

The Scheme at times may receive large number of redemption requests, leading to an asset-liability mismatch and therefore, requiring the investment manager to make a distress sale of the securities leading to realignment of the portfolio and consequently resulting in investment in lower yield instruments.

Right to Limit Redemptions: The Trustee, in the general interest of the Unit holders of the Scheme offered in this Document and keeping in view the unforeseen circumstances / unusual market conditions, may limit the total number of Units which can be redeemed on any Business Day.

Portfolio Concentration Risk

To the extent that the Scheme may concentrate its investments in the Securities of companies of certain companies/sectors, the Scheme will therefore be subject to the risks associated with such concentration. In addition, the Scheme may be exposed to higher levels of volatility and risk than would generally be the case in a more diverse fund portfolio of equity Securities. Such risks may impact the Scheme to the extent that it invests in particular sectors even in cases where the investment objective is more generic.

Passive Investments

The Scheme is not actively managed. The Scheme may be affected by a general decline in the Indian markets relating to its Underlying Index. The Scheme invests in the securities included in its Underlying Index regardless of their investment merit. The AMC does not attempt to individually select stocks or to take defensive positions in declining markets

Risk associated with investing in equities and equity related instruments

- The value of the Schemes' investments, may be affected generally by factors affecting securities markets, such as price and volume volatility in the capital markets, interest rates, currency exchange rates, changes in policies of the Government, taxation laws or any other appropriate authority policies and other political and economic developments which may have an adverse bearing on individual securities, a specific sector or all sectors including equity and debt markets. Consequently, the NAV of the Units of the Schemes may fluctuate and can go up or down.
- Investors may note that AMC/Fund Manager's investment decisions may not be always profitable, as actual market movements may be at variance with anticipated trends. Trading volumes, settlement periods and transfer procedures may restrict the liquidity of these investments. Different segments of the Indian financial markets have different settlement periods and such periods may be extended significantly by unforeseen circumstances. The inability of the Schemes to make intended securities purchases due to settlement problems could cause the Schemes to miss certain investment opportunities.
- The Mutual Fund may not be able to sell / lend out securities, which can lead to temporary illiquidity. There are risks inherent in securities lending, including the risk of failure of the other party, in this case the approved intermediary to comply with the terms of the agreement. Such failure can result in a possible loss of rights to the collateral, the inability of the approved intermediary to return the securities deposited by the lender and the possible loss of corporate benefits accruing thereon.
- Investors may note that the dividend is due only when declared and there is no assurance that a company (even though it may have a track record of payment of dividend in the past) may continue paying dividend in future. As such, the schemes are vulnerable to instances where investments in securities may not earn dividend or where lesser dividend is declared by a company in subsequent years in which investments are made by the scheme. As the profitability of companies are likely to vary and have a material bearing on their ability to declare and pay dividend, the performance of the schemes may be adversely affected due to such factors.

- Securities, which are not quoted on the stock exchanges, are inherently illiquid in nature and carry a larger amount of liquidity risk. Within the Regulatory limits, the AMC may choose to invest in unlisted securities.
- While securities that are listed on the stock exchange carry lower liquidity risk, the ability to sell these investments is limited by the overall trading volume on the stock exchanges. The liquidity of the Schemes' investments is inherently restricted by trading volumes in the securities in which it invests.
- Fund manager endeavours to generate returns based on certain past statistical trend. The performance of the schemes may get affected if there is a change in the said trend. There can be no assurance that such historical trends will continue.
- In case of abnormal circumstances, it will be difficult to complete the square off transaction due to liquidity being poor in stock futures/spot market. However, fund will aim at taking exposure into relatively liquid stocks where there will be minimal risk to square off the transaction. The Schemes investing in foreign securities will be exposed to settlement risk, as different countries have different settlement periods.
- Changes in Government policy in general and changes in tax benefits applicable to mutual funds may impact the returns to investors in the Schemes or business prospects of the Company in any particular sector.
- In case of warrants, a relatively small movement in the price of the underlying security results in a disproportionately large movement, unfavourable or favourable, in the price of the warrant. The prices of warrants can therefore be volatile.
- It is essential for the investors to understand that the right to subscribe which a warrant confers is invariably limited in time with the consequence that if the investor fails to exercise this right within the predetermined timeline then the investment becomes worthless. Investment in a warrant can result in a total loss of the money invested plus any commission or other transaction charges.

Risk associated with investment in fixed income and money market securities

- Market Risk/Interest Rate Risk: The Net Asset Value (NAV) of the Scheme, to the extent invested in fixed income and money market securities, will be affected by changes in the general level of interest rates. The NAV of the Scheme is expected to increase from a fall in interest rates while it would be adversely affected by an increase in the level of interest rates.
- Liquidity Risk: The liquidity of a security may change depending on market conditions leading to changes in the liquidity premium linked to the price of the security. At the time of selling the security, the security can become illiquid leading to loss in the value of the portfolio.
- Credit Risk: Investments in fixed income securities and money market instruments are subject to the risk of an issuer's inability to meet interest and principal payments on its obligations and market perception of the creditworthiness of the issuer.

- Price Risk: Government securities where a fixed return is offered run price-risk like any other fixed income security. Generally, when interest rates rise, prices of fixed income securities fall and when interest rates drop, the prices increase. The extent of fall or rise in the prices is a function of the existing coupon, days to maturity and the increase or decrease in the level of interest rates. The new level of interest rate is determined by the rates at which government raises new money and/or the price levels at which the market is already dealing in existing securities. The price-risk is not unique to Government Securities. It exists for all fixed income securities. However, Government Securities are unique in the sense that their credit risk generally remains zero. Therefore, their prices are influenced only by movement in interest rates in the financial system.
- Reinvestment Risk: This risk refers to the interest rate levels at which cash flows received from the securities in the Scheme are reinvested. The additional income from reinvestment is the “interest on interest” component. The risk is that the rate at which interim cash flows can be reinvested may be lower than that originally assumed.
- Regulatory Risk: Changes in government policy in general and changes in tax benefits applicable to Mutual Funds may impact the returns to investors in the Scheme.
- Risks associated with investment in unlisted securities: Except for any security of an associate or group company, the underlying scheme have the power to invest in securities which are not listed on a stock exchange or receive unlisted securities which in general are subject to greater price fluctuations, less liquidity and greater risk than those which are traded in the open market. These securities may lack a liquid secondary market and there can be no assurance that the underlying scheme will realise their investments in unlisted securities at a fair value.
- Settlement risk: The inability of the Scheme to make intended securities purchases due to settlement problems could cause the Scheme to miss certain investment opportunities. By the same rationale, the inability to sell securities held in the Scheme’s portfolio due to the extraneous factors that may impact liquidity would result, at times, in potential losses to the Scheme.
- Different types of fixed income securities in which the Scheme would invest as given in the Scheme Information Document carry different levels and types of risk. Accordingly, the Scheme(s) risk may increase or decrease depending upon its investment pattern. e.g. corporate bonds carry a higher level of risk than Government securities.
- The AMC may, considering the overall level of risk of the portfolio, invest in lower rated / unrated securities offering higher yields as well as zero coupon securities that offer attractive yields. This may increase the absolute level of risk of the portfolio.

- As zero coupon securities does not provide periodic interest payments to the holder of the security, these securities are more sensitive to changes in interest rates. Therefore, the interest rate risk of zero coupon securities is higher. The AMC may choose to invest in zero coupon securities that offer attractive yields. This may increase the risk of the portfolio.

The Scheme at times may receive large number of redemption requests, leading to an asset-liability mismatch and therefore, requiring the investment manager to make a distress sale of the securities leading to realignment of the portfolio and consequently resulting in investment in lower yield instruments.

➤ Tracking Error Risk

Factors such as the fees and expenses of the Scheme, Corporate Actions, Cash balance, changes to the Underlying Indices and regulatory policies may affect the AMC's ability to achieve close correlation with the Underlying Index of the Scheme. The Scheme's returns may therefore deviate from those of its Underlying Index.

Tracking errors may result from a variety of factors including but not limited to:

1. Expenditure incurred by the Scheme.
2. The funds may not be invested at all times as it may keep a portion of the funds in cash to meet redemptions or expenses or for corporate actions of securities in the index.
3. Any delay experienced in the purchase or sale of shares due to illiquidity of the market, settlement and realization of sale proceeds and the registration of any securities transferred and any delays in receiving cash and scrip dividends and resulting delays in reinvesting them.
4. Securities trading may halt temporarily due to circuit filters.
5. The underlying index reflects the prices of securities at close of business hours. However, the Fund may buy or sell the securities at different points of time during the trading session at the then prevailing prices which may not correspond to the closing prices on the exchange.
6. Index Service Provider undertakes the periodical review of the scrips that comprise the underlying index and may either drop or include new securities. In such an event, the Fund will endeavor to reallocate its portfolio but the available investment/ disinvestment opportunities may not permit precise mirroring of the Index immediately.
7. The potential for trades to fail which may result in the Scheme not having acquired shares at a price necessary to track the index.
8. The holding of cash position to meet the redemptions and other liquidity requirements and accrued income prior to distribution and accrued expenses.
9. Corporate actions such as rights, merger, change in constituents etc.
10. Rounding off quantity of shares underlying the index
11. Disinvestments to meet redemptions, recurring expenses, dividend payouts etc.
12. Under normal circumstances, such tracking errors are not expected to exceed 2% per annum. However, this may vary due to the reasons mentioned above or any other reasons that may arise and particularly when the markets are very volatile.

➤ Risks associated with Investing in Foreign Securities - ADRs/GDRs/other overseas investments:

It is AMC's belief that the investment in ADRs/GDRs/overseas securities offers new investment and portfolio diversification opportunities into multi-market and multi-currency products. However, such investments also entail additional risks. Such investment opportunities may be pursued by the AMC provided they are considered appropriate in terms of the overall investment objectives of the Schemes. Since the Schemes would invest only partially in ADRs/GDRs/overseas securities, there may not be readily available and widely accepted benchmarks to measure performance of the Schemes. To manage risks associated with foreign currency and interest rate exposure, the Fund may use derivatives for efficient portfolio management including hedging and in accordance with conditions as may be stipulated by SEBI/RBI from time to time.

To the extent that the assets of the Schemes will be invested in securities denominated in foreign currencies, the Indian Rupee equivalent of the net assets, distributions and income may be adversely affected by the changes in the value of certain foreign currencies relative to the Indian Rupee. Restrictions on currency trading that may be imposed by developing market countries will have an adverse effect on the value of the securities of companies that trade or operate in such countries. The repatriation of capital also may be hampered by changes in regulations concerning exchange controls or political circumstances as well as the application to it of the other restrictions on investment.

Some countries prohibit or impose substantial restrictions on investments by foreign entities. Certain countries may restrict investment opportunities in issuers or industries or securities deemed important to national interests. The manner, in which foreign investors may invest in companies/securities in certain countries, as well as limitations on such investments, may have an adverse impact on the operations of the Scheme. Certain risk arises from the inability of a country to meet its financial obligations. It is the risk encompassing economic, social and political conditions in a foreign country which might adversely affect the interests of the Scheme

Offshore investments will be made subject to any/all approvals, conditions thereof as may be stipulated by SEBI/RBI and provided such investments do not result in expenses to the Fund in excess of the ceiling on expenses prescribed by and consistent with costs and expenses attendant to international investing. The Fund may, where necessary, appoint other intermediaries of repute as advisors, custodian/sub-custodians etc. for managing and administering such investments. The appointment of such intermediaries shall be in accordance with the applicable requirements of SEBI and within the permissible ceilings of expenses. The fees and expenses would illustratively include, besides the investment management fees, custody fees and costs, fees of appointed advisors and sub-managers, transaction costs, and overseas regulatory costs.

The Scheme shall bear costs associated with investment in overseas securities as permissible under Regulation 52 of SEBI Regulations.

➤ Risks associated with Investing in Derivatives:

The Schemes may use various derivative products as permitted by the Regulations. Use of derivatives requires an understanding of not only the underlying instrument but also of the derivative itself. Other risks include the risk of mis-pricing or improper valuation and the inability of derivatives to correlate perfectly with underlying assets, rates and indices.

The Scheme may use derivatives instruments like Stock /Index Futures or other derivative instruments for the purpose of hedging and portfolio balancing, as permitted under the Regulations and guidelines. Usage of derivatives will expose the Schemes to certain risks inherent to such derivatives.

Derivative products are leveraged instruments and can provide disproportionate gains as well as disproportionate losses to the investor. Execution of such strategies depends upon the ability of the fund manager to identify such opportunities. Identification and execution of the strategies to be pursued by the fund manager involve uncertainty and decision of fund manager may not always be profitable. No assurance can be given that the fund manager will be able to identify or execute such strategies.

Thus, derivatives are highly leveraged instruments. Even a small price movement in the underlying security could have a large impact on their value. Also, the market for derivative instruments is nascent in India.

The risks associated with the use of derivatives are different from or possibly greater than the risks associated with investing directly in securities and other traditional investments.

The specific risk factors arising out of a derivative strategy used by the Fund Manager may be as below:

- The risk of mispricing or improper valuation and the inability of derivatives to correlate perfectly with underlying assets, rates and indices.
- Execution Risk: The prices which are seen on the screen need not be the same at which execution will take place.
- Basis Risk: This risk arises when the derivative instrument used to hedge the underlying asset does not match the movement of the underlying asset being hedged.
- Exchanges could raise the initial margin, variation margin or other forms of margin on derivative contracts, impose one sided margins or insist that margins be placed in cash. All of these might force positions to be unwound at a loss, and might materially impact returns.

➤ Risks associated with investing in Securitised Debt

The Scheme will not invest in Securitised Debt

➤ Risks associated with Short Selling and Stock Lending & Borrowing (SLB)

The Scheme will not invest in Short Selling and Securities Lending.

➤ Risk factors associated with creation of segregated portfolios

1. Liquidity risk – A segregated portfolio is created when a credit event occurs at an issuer level in the scheme. This may reduce the liquidity of the security issued by the said issuer, as demand for this security may reduce. This is also further accentuated by the lack of secondary market liquidity for corporate papers in India. As per SEBI norms, the scheme is to be closed for redemption and subscriptions until the segregated portfolio is created, running the risk of investors being unable to redeem their investments. However, it may be noted that, the proposed segregated portfolio is required to be formed within one day from the occurrence of the credit event.

Investors may note that no redemption and subscription shall be allowed in the segregated portfolio. However, in order to facilitate exit to unit holders in segregated portfolio, AMC shall list the units of the segregated portfolio on a recognized stock exchange within 10 business days of creation of segregated portfolio and also enable transfer of such units on receipt of transfer requests. For the units listed on the exchange, it is possible that the market price at which the units are traded may be at a discount to the NAV of such Units. There is no assurance that a deep secondary market will develop for units of segregated portfolio listed on the stock exchange. This could limit the ability of the investors to resell them.

2. Valuation risk - The valuation of the securities in the segregated portfolio is required to be carried out in line with the applicable SEBI guidelines. However, it may be difficult to ascertain the fair value of the securities due to absence of an active secondary market and difficulty to price in qualitative factors.

➤ Risks associated with investing in Tri Party Repo through CCIL (TREPS)

The mutual fund is a member of securities segment and Tri-party Repo trade settlement of the Clearing Corporation of India (CCIL). All transactions of the mutual fund in government securities and in Tri-party Repo trades are settled centrally through the infrastructure and settlement systems provided by CCIL; thus reducing the settlement and counterparty risks considerably for transactions in the said segments.

CCIL maintains prefunded resources in all the clearing segments to cover potential losses arising from the default member. In the event of a clearing member failing to honour his settlement obligations, the default Fund is utilized to complete the settlement. The sequence in which the above resources are used is known as the “Default Waterfall”.

As per the waterfall mechanism, after the defaulter’s margins and the defaulter’s contribution to the default fund have been appropriated, CCIL’s contribution is used to meet the losses. Post utilization of CCIL’s contribution if there is a residual loss, it is appropriated from the default fund contributions of the non-defaulting members.

Thus the scheme is subject to risk of the initial margin and default fund contribution being invoked in the event of failure of any settlement obligations. In addition, the fund contribution is allowed to be used to meet the residual loss in case of default by the other clearing member (the defaulting member).

However, it may be noted that a member shall have the right to submit resignation from the membership of the Security segment if it has taken a loss through replenishment of its contribution to the default fund for the segments and a loss threshold as notified have been reached. The maximum contribution of a member towards replenishment of its contribution to the default fund in the 7 days (30 days in case of securities segment) period immediately after the afore-mentioned loss threshold having been reached shall not exceed 5 times of its contribution to the Default Fund based on the last re-computation of the Default Fund or specified amount, whichever is lower.

Further, it may be noted that, CCIL periodically prescribes a list of securities eligible for contributions as collateral by members. Presently, all Central Government securities and Treasury bills are accepted as collateral by CCIL. The risk factors may undergo change in case the CCIL notifies securities other than Government of India securities as eligible for contribution as collateral.

Apart from the risk factors mentioned above, the scheme is exposed to certain specific risks, which are as mentioned below –

To the extent that the assets of the Scheme will be invested in securities denominated in foreign currencies, the Indian Rupee equivalent of the net assets, distributions and income may be adversely affected by changes in the value of certain foreign currencies relative to the Indian Rupee (if Indian Rupee appreciates against these foreign currencies).

The repatriation of capital to India may also be hampered by changes in regulations concerning exchange controls or political circumstances as well as the application to it of other restrictions on investment. The Scheme may have to pay applicable taxes on gains from such investment. As regards foreign securities that are traded on exchanges that are not located in India, the NAV will be calculated based on the closing price of the foreign security and the prevailing exchange rate on that date. The Scheme's NAV may also be affected by a fluctuation in the general and specific level of interest rates internationally, or the change in the credit profiles of the issuers.

Risk factors related to Taxation for investing in securities forming part of the Index

1. Investment in listed equity
(i) Capital Gains

Under Section 865(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) of the U.S., income from the sale of personal property by a non-U.S. resident is sourced outside of the U.S., and thus generally should not be subject to U.S. federal income tax. Note that this rule is also subject to certain exceptions, for instance, under Section 865(e)(2). But so long as the Scheme does not maintain an office or other fixed place of business in the U.S. we would not expect Section 865(e)(2) to result in US-sourced capital gains.

In addition, under Section 864(b)(2)(A), trading in stock or securities is generally not considered a U.S. trade or business, except when the taxpayer is a dealer in stocks or securities and effects the trades through U.S. offices directly or through the U.S. office of its agent other than an independent agent (Trading Safe Harbor).

However, if the Scheme invests in any entities that are treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes and if these partnerships are engaged in a U.S. trade or business, then the Scheme itself would be treated as engaged in such a U.S. trade or business, would likely be required to file a U.S. income tax return and potentially pay U.S. tax on its distributive share of partnership income, and may be subject to tax and to potential tax and withholding with respect to sales of an interest in any such partnership.

Moreover, Section 897(a) may treat gain derived by a non-U.S. resident from the disposition of a U.S. Real Property Interest (USRPI) as income that is effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business and thus subject such gain to U.S. federal income tax (and to a requirement to file a U.S. income tax return). Shares of a U.S. corporation that is a U.S. Real Property Holding Corporation (USRPHC), i.e. a company that owns substantial U.S. real estate, would generally be treated as USRPI. Likewise, an interest in a publicly traded partnership (PTP) that holds substantial U.S. real estate would generally be treated as a USPRI.

Nonetheless, the definition of USRPI excludes stock of a U.S. corporation that is regularly traded on an established securities market, but such exclusion only applies if the stock is held by a person who, during the 5-year look-back period, did not actually or constructively own more than 5% of that class of stock. The USPRI exclusion for publicly traded stock for holders of 5% or less of such stock is increased to 10% solely in the case of a publicly traded real estate investment trust (REIT). Moreover, the exclusion would apply for a non-resident holding not more than a 5% interest in a PTP that is also a USPRI.

As we would expect that the Scheme would not be considered as having a U.S. trade or business by reasons of its investment activities (provided that it does not invest in partnerships that are engaged in a U.S. trade or business), capital gains derived by the Scheme from the sale of listed U.S. equity should not be subject to tax in the U.S. provided the Scheme holds an interest of 5% or less of any class of stock or 10% in case of a publicly traded REIT and 5% or less of a PTP that is also USPRI.

In case where the Scheme held, at sometime within the 5-year period ending on the date of disposition, more than 5% of the shares of a publicly-traded company that is also a USRPHC, 10% or more of a publicly traded REIT, or more than 5% of a PTP that is also a USPRI, gain from disposition of such interest is subject to U.S. corporate net income tax at a rate of 21%.

The AMC shall endeavor that the Scheme's exposure in a publicly-traded company that is also a USRPHC shall not exceed 5% or in case of a publicly traded REIT, shall not exceed 10%, or in the case of a partnership interest in a PTP that would be considered a USPRI, shall not exceed 5%, so that the capital gains received by the Scheme are not subject to tax in U.S.

It should be noted that Section 864(c)(8), which was enacted in 2017, provides that where a partnership, including a PTP, is engaged in a U.S. trade or business, if a non-U.S. partner disposes of the partnership interest, a portion of gain or loss is treated as connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business, and is therefore subject to U.S. tax. Such income also generates a requirement to file a U.S. tax return. Unlike the rules for PTPs that are USPRI, this provision is not subject to a 5% exception. In addition, Section 1446(f) imposes a requirement that when a non-U.S. partner disposes of an interest in such a partnership, the purchaser withholds 10% of the purchase price (as a prepayment of the ultimate tax liability). Newly finalized regulations also provide that the non-U.S. partner must provide a statement to the partnership within 30 days of the transfer indicating the names of the seller and purchaser(s), and, in turn, the partnership must provide information to the seller so that the seller may comply with Section 864(c)(8).

If a purchaser fails to withhold on a transfer of partnership interest on or after January 1, 2022, the partnership will be required to withhold the amount that should have been withheld, plus interest, from future distributions to the purchaser.

Within 10 days of the transfer of the partnership interest, the purchaser must also provide the partnership a certification that it has complied with its withholding obligations, including any indication that the purchaser is relying on a reduction or exclusion, like treaty benefits. The 1446(f) tax should be paid within 20 days of the transfer. Under the finalized IRS regulations, a PTP is not required to withhold under Section 1446(f), unless it never receives or cannot rely on the certification from the purchaser.

(ii) Dividend income

Under Section 881(a)(1) of the Code, dividend income received by a foreign corporation from sources within the U.S is subject to a 30% withholding tax, assuming treaty benefits are not available. Thus U.S. source dividends received by the Scheme from investment in U.S. listed equities shall be subject to withholding tax of 30%. However, withholding tax may differ for certain distributions from REITs. Ordinary dividends paid by a REIT to a non-US resident are typically subject to the same 30% withholding tax discussed above. However, when a REIT realizes capital gains, it may designate a portion of the dividends distributed to its shareholders as a capital gain dividend as defined in Section 857(b)(3), or potentially pay a tax. For shareholders, a capital gain dividend is treated in the same way as any capital gain. Thus, non-US resident investors in the Scheme should not be subject to tax on the capital gain dividend under Section 865(a)(2). Note that under Code Section 897(h)(1), any distribution to a foreign person by a REIT to the extent attributable to gain from sales or exchanges by the qualified investment entity of USRPIs, is treated as gain from the sale or exchange of a USRPI by the foreign person and subject to withholding unless the REIT is publicly traded on a U.S exchange and the foreign person did not own more than 10% of such class of stock at any time during the 1 year period ending on the date of distribution. See additional discussion under below (“(ii) Income distributions from U.S mutual funds”). However, under Section, 857(b)(3)(E), if the foreign person owns 10% or less of the REIT or the REIT is not publicly traded, the distribution would simply be taxed as a U.S. sourced- dividend subject to 30% withholding tax as discussed above.

2. Investment in U.S Treasury bills, notes or bonds

(i) Capital Gains

Under Section 865(a)(2) of the Code, income from the sale of personal property by a non-U.S. resident is sourced outside of the U.S. Thus, capital gains derived by the Scheme from the sale of U.S. Treasury bills, notes or bonds shall not be subject to tax in the U.S. As noted above, there are still exceptions to this rule, for instance, under Section 865(e)(2). But so long as the Scheme does not maintain an office or other fixed place of business in the U.S. we would not expect Section 865(e)(2) to result in US-sourced capital gains.

(ii) Interest income

Under Section 881(a)(1)(A) of the Code, interest income received by a foreign corporation from sources within the U.S. is subject to a 30% withholding tax, assuming treaty benefits do not apply. Hence, interest income received by the Scheme shall generally be subject to withholding tax of 30%.

However, Section 881(c) provides that in the case of any portfolio interest received by a foreign corporation from sources within the U.S., no tax shall be imposed under Section 881(a)(1).

Portfolio interest generally means any interest which is paid on an obligation which is in registered form and with respect to which the person who would otherwise be the withholding agent receives a statement from the beneficial owner or a securities clearing organization, bank or other financial institution that holds customers' securities in the ordinary course of business that the beneficial owner of the obligation is not a U.S. person. Certain additional requirements may apply. For instance, interest payments must not be "contingent" in order to qualify for the portfolio interest exemption. Nonetheless, U.S. Treasury bills, notes and bonds are generally expected to qualify for the portfolio interest exemption.

Further, as the Scheme shall be primarily investing in securities of companies that are listed on the NYSE and / or NASDAQ, the Scheme shall not be classified as "Equity Oriented Fund" as per the provisions mentioned in the Income Tax Act, 1961. Hence the tax provisions as applicable to other than Equity Oriented Fund shall be applicable to the unit holders of the Scheme in India.

3. Investment in U.S. Based Mutual Fund

(i) Capital Gains

As already noted, under Code Section 865(a)(2), income from the sale of personal property by a non-U.S. resident is sourced outside of the U.S. Thus, generally capital gains derived by a non-U.S. investor from the sale of an investment in a U.S. based mutual fund should not be subject to tax in the U.S. However, if the mutual fund that is sold is a USRPHC, then the gain is considered to be effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business and thus subject to U.S. net taxation, unless the mutual fund whose shares are sold is (a) publicly traded and the investor held an interest of 5% or less in the mutual fund at all times during the year preceding the sale or (b) the mutual fund is a domestically controlled qualified investment entity.

(ii) Income distributions from U.S. mutual funds

Generally, under Code Section 881(a)(1)(A), dividend income received by a foreign corporation from sources within the U.S. is subject to 30% withholding tax. A mutual fund that is not subject to the USRPHC-related rules described above may distribute ordinary dividends which should be subject to 30% withholding tax. Dividends designated by a Regulated Investment Company ("RIC") (e.g. a mutual fund) as capital gain dividends are treated as long term capital gains in the hands of the shareholders. Except as described above for mutual funds that otherwise qualify as USRPHCs, because long-term capital gains are sourced to the domicile of the recipient, such capital gain dividends should not be U.S source if the recipient is a non-U.S person, and thus would not be subject to U.S taxation

Code Section 881(e)(1) excludes interest-related dividends received from a RIC from the tax imposed by Code Section 881(a)(1). Under Code Section 881(e)(2), short-term capital gain dividends received from a RIC are also excluded from the tax imposed by Section 881(a)(1). A RIC will designate by written notice mailed to its shareholders whether a dividend (or part thereof) is a capital gain dividend, or, with respect to prior years, an interest related dividend or a short-term capital gain dividend.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, as noted above, under Code Section 897(h)(1), any distribution to a foreign person or other qualified investment entity by a qualified investment entity to the extent attributable to gain from sales or exchanges by the qualified investment entity of USRPIs, is treated as gain from the sale or exchange of a USRPI by the foreign person unless such distribution is with respect to stock that is publicly traded on a U.S exchange and the foreign person did not own more than 5% (or in the case of a REIT, no more than 10%) of such class of stock at any time during the 1 year period ending on the date of distribution. Where the distribution is treated as gain from the sale or exchange of a USRPI, the distribution is treated as income effectively connected to a U.S trade or business, subject to tax at U.S corporate tax rates and withheld on at a rate of 21% of the distribution. The total amount in tax paid should not exceed the liability as determined by applying the U.S corporate rate.

In addition, where distributions from the mutual fund are characterized as gain from the sale of a USRPI due to Code Section 897(h) discussed above, the income is considered effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S trade or business such that the branch profits tax provisions must be considered. Under Code Section 884(a), dividend equivalent amounts are subject to tax at a rate of 30%. The dividend equivalent amount is equal to a foreign corporation's effectively connected earnings and profits as determined under Code Section 884(b). Code Section 884(d)(2)(C) excludes gain on the disposition of an interest in a USRPHC from the definition of effectively connected earnings and profits. Thus, where Code Section 897(h) applies to treat a dividend distribution as the sale of a USRPI and subject it to withholding, there is branch profits tax as well unless the distribution/gain is related to the sale of USRPHC shares by the qualified investment entity.

For detailed tax benefits, investors are requested to refer para on "Tax benefits of investing in Mutual Fund" as mentioned in the Statement of Additional Information.

C. Risk Mitigation Strategies:

The Fund by utilizing a holistic risk management strategy will endeavor to manage risks associated with investing in equity and debt markets. The risk control process involves identifying & measuring the risk through various risk measurement tools.

The Fund has identified following risks of investing in equity and debt securities and designed risk management strategies, which are embedded in the investment process to manage such risks.

Risks associated with Equity investments
Market Risk The scheme is vulnerable to movements in the prices of securities invested by the scheme, which could have a material bearing on the overall returns from the scheme	Market risk is inherent to an equity scheme. Being a passively managed scheme, it will invest in the securities forming part of the Underlying Index.
Liquidity risk The liquidity of the Scheme's investments is inherently restricted by trading volumes in the securities in which it invests.	As such the liquidity of stocks that the scheme invests into could be relatively low. The fund will try to maintain a proper asset-liability match to ensure redemption payouts are made on time and not affected by illiquidity of the underlying stocks.
Currency Risk The Scheme will invest in foreign securities as permitted by the concerned regulatory authorities in India. Since the assets will be invested in securities denominated in foreign currency, the INR equivalent of the net assets, distributions and income may be adversely affected by changes / fluctuations in the value of the foreign currencies relative to the INR.	The scheme subject to applicable regulations shall have the option to enter into forward contracts for the purposes of hedging against the foreign exchange fluctuations. The Schemes may employ various measures (as permitted by SEBI/RBI) including but not restricted to currency hedging (such as currency options and forward currency exchange contracts, currency futures, written call options and purchased put options on currencies and currency swaps), to manage foreign exchange movements arising out of investment in foreign securities. All currency derivatives trade, if any will be done only through the stock exchange platform.
Tracking Error risk (Volatility/ Concentration risk): The performance of the Scheme may not be commensurate with the performance of the underlying Index on any given day or over any given period	Tracking Error risk (Volatility/ Concentration risk): Over a short to medium period, the Scheme may carry the risk of variance between portfolio composition and Benchmark. The objective of the Scheme is to closely track the performance of the Underlying Index over the same period, subject to tracking error. The Scheme would endeavor to maintain a low tracking error by actively aligning the portfolio in line with the Index.

Derivatives Risk

As and when the Scheme trades in the derivatives market there are risk factors and issues concerning the use of derivatives since derivative products are specialized instruments that require investment techniques and risk analyses different from those associated with stocks and bonds.

Derivatives will be used for the purpose of hedging/portfolio rebalancing purposes. Derivatives will be used in the form of Index Futures/Options, Stock Futures/Options and other instruments as may be permitted by SEBI.

Risks associated with Debt/Money market investmentsMarket Risk/ Interest Rate Risk

As with all debt securities, changes in interest rates may affect the Scheme's Net Asset Value as the prices of securities generally increase as interest rates decline and generally decrease as interest rates rise. Prices of long-term securities generally fluctuate more in response to interest rate changes than do short-term securities. Indian debt markets can be volatile leading to the possibility of price movements up or down in fixed income securities and thereby to possible movements in the NAV.

In a rising interest rates scenario the scheme may increase its investment in money market securities whereas if the interest rates are expected to fall the allocation to debt securities with longer maturity may be increased thereby mitigating risk to that extent.

Liquidity or Marketability Risk

This refers to the ease with which a security can be sold at or near to its valuation yield-to-maturity (YTM).

The Scheme may invest in government securities, corporate bonds and money market instruments. While the liquidity risk for government securities, money market instruments and short maturity corporate bonds may be low, it may be high in case of medium to long maturity corporate bonds.

Credit Risk

Credit risk or default risk refers to the risk that an issuer of a fixed income security may default (i.e., will be unable to make timely principal and interest payments on the security).

Management analysis will be used for identifying company specific risks. In order to assess financial risk, a detailed assessment of the issuer's financial statements will be undertaken to review its ability to undergo stress on cash flows and asset quality. A detailed evaluation of accounting policies, off-balance sheet exposures, notes, auditors' comments and disclosure standards will also be made to assess the overall financial risk of the potential borrower.

Reinvestment Risk

This risk refers to the interest rate levels at which cash flows received from the securities in the Schemes are reinvested. The risk is that the rate at which interim cash flows can be reinvested may be lower than that originally assumed.

Reinvestment risks will be limited to the extent of coupons received on debt instruments, which will be a very small portion of the portfolio value.

Note: The information contained herein is based on current market conditions and may change from time to time based on changes in such conditions, regulatory changes and other relevant factors. Accordingly, our investment strategy, risk mitigation measures and other information contained herein may change in response to the same.

POSITION OF DEBT MARKET IN INDIA

There are three main segments in the debt markets in India, viz., Government Securities, Public Sector Units (PSU) bonds, and corporate securities. A bulk of the debt market consists of Government Securities. Other instruments available currently include Corporate Debentures, Bonds issued by Financial Institutions, Commercial Paper, Certificates of Deposits and Securitized Debt. Securities in the Debt market typically vary based on their tenure and rating. Government Securities have tenures from one year to thirty years whereas the maturity period of the Corporate Debt now goes upto sixty years and more (perpetual). Perpetual bonds are now issued by banks as well. Securities may be both listed and unlisted and there is increasing trend of securities of maturities of over one year being listed by issuers.

Exposure limit for participating in Interest Rate Futures as per paragraph 12.25.9 of the Master Circular

i. To reduce interest rate risk in a debt portfolio, mutual funds may hedge the portfolio or part of the portfolio (including one or more securities) on weighted average modified duration basis by using Interest Rate Futures (IRFs). The maximum extent of short position that may be taken in IRFs to hedge interest rate risk of the portfolio or part of the portfolio, is as per the formula given below:

$$\frac{(\text{Portfolio Modified Duration} * \text{Market Value of the Portfolio})}{(\text{Futures Modified Duration} * \text{Future Price/ PAR})}$$

14. The Scheme will comply with any other Regulation applicable to the investments of mutual funds from time to time.

The Trustee may alter the above restrictions from time to time to the extent that changes in the Regulations may allow or as deemed fit in the general interest of the unit holders.

All investment restrictions shall be applicable at the time of making investment.

Policy for declaration of Income Distribution cum capital withdrawal (IDCW Policy)	(i) Growth Option The Scheme will not declare any IDCW under this option. The income earned by the Scheme will remain reinvested in the Scheme and will be reflected in the Net Asset Value. This option is suitable for investors who are not looking for regular income but who have invested with the intention of capital appreciation. (ii) IDCW Option This option is suitable for investors seeking income through IDCW declared by the Scheme. The Trustee may approve the distribution of IDCW by AMC out of the distributable surplus under this Option. The remaining distributable surplus after considering the IDCW and tax, if any, payable there on will be ploughed back in the Scheme and be reflected in the NAV. (iii) IDCW Payout: As per the SEBI (MF) Regulations, the IDCW warrants shall be dispatched to the Unit Holders within 7 business days from the record date.
